

Inspirational Women's Leadership

Criteria

Nominations are sought to acknowledge and celebrate the significant achievements women make in Monash.

This category recognises the following:

- » The nominee either lives, works or studies in Monash, or contributes to the Monash community
- » The nominee identifies as a woman
- » A nominee can be recognised for paid or volunteer contributions, however it is noted that extra dedication is required to undertake volunteer work
- » Nominations can be made for one-off contributions, although consistent involvement or dedication may be held in higher regard

This award will be presented to a nominee who:

- » Has made an enduring commitment to advancing gender equity in the community that has brought about significant change
- » Breaks down traditional gender stereotypes about what women can do
- » Is a local champion who has positively impacted others in the community
- » Is a role model to their family, community and/or workplace.

Nomination Guidelines

Here are a few guidelines to assist you with your nomination

- » Nominees can be nominated in only one category (not multiple categories)
- » Individuals who have previously been nominated for a Monash Award are eligible to be nominated again (Monash Award recipients are ineligible for future award nominations)
- » Ensure contact details are completed to the best of your ability
- » When providing information about your nominee, it is important to highlight their achievements. Please provide examples with as much detail as possible, including relevant dates, etc
- » To assist your nomination, include supporting documentation such as photos, articles, personal references, etc
- » Describe the positive difference the nominee has made to a community, group, individual or business
- » Aim to answer this question in your nomination: “How has the nominee been an inspiration, role model, shown leadership or overcome particular challenges?”
- » Indicate how long the nominee has been involved in the activity they are being nominated for and the degree of their contribution
- » If your nominee has received other awards or been acknowledged in other ways, please note this in your nomination
- » It is advised to select up to three or four major activities and focus on these in your nomination. Other activities can be mentioned but not fully detailed
- » Please indicate clearly whether the nominee has performed voluntary work or is associated with paid employment
- » Council staff and Councillors are not able to be nominated.
