

Freedom of Information Request

Application Form

Please email the completed form to governance@monash.vic.gov.au or mail to Freedom of Information Officer, Monash Council, PO Box 1 Glen Waverley VIC 3150.

Before you start

Please read through the below information before you submit your application. Doing so may help you to avoid paying the non-refundable application fee for documents that may:

- already be available online; or
- is available through another process; or
- is not available due to a legislative reason.

Refusal

Not all documents are automatically made available in response to a request. The Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the Act) sets out several reasons for an agency to refuse access to a document.

Council can refuse access to or parts of documents under Part IV of the Act including:

- law enforcement information
- information protected by legal professional privilege
- information about the personal affairs of another individual
- confidential commercial information (of businesses or Council)
- information provided in confidence
- documents covered by secrecy provisions in other legislation
- if disclosure would conflict with public interest.

Alternative access to documents

To avoid paying the non-refundable application fee, please make sure the documents you are seeking are not available another way.

Did you know:

- Council may have other processes in place to seek access to documents.
- Where there is another process to access documents for a fee, you cannot seek the documents through the FOI Act.

Clear requests

To help us to process your request, it needs to be clear enough for us to know the documents you want. Information that helps us includes:

A date range	The Act gives you the right to access documents from 1 January 1989.
A specific location	Maps highlighting specific locations can be helpful for officers when assessing documents.
Types of documents	Requesting 'all documents' is not enough. The FOI Officer needs to know what type of documents. If you need support to identify what documents you need, please contact governance@monash.vic.gov.au .

Consultation

Monash Council has a duty under the Freedom of Information Act 1982, to consult with individuals or businesses whose information is contained within the document(s) requested. The purpose of the consultation is to seek their views on whether the document(s) should be released or not. As part of the consultation process do you consent to being identified as the FOI applicant?

Tick as appropriate:

- Yes, I provide consent to being identified as the FOI applicant.
- No, I do not provide consent to being identified as the FOI applicant.

Form of Access

Tick as appropriate:

- I request soft copies of the document(s) be sent to my email address.
- I request hard copies of the document(s) be forwarded by mail.
- I request an inspection of the original document(s).

Access to Personal Information

If you are seeking access to personal affairs information, it means Council may have to consult with several parties which may make the process longer. If you choose not to access personal affairs information, it may mean Council can process your application faster.

Tick as appropriate:

- I request access to personal affairs information
- I do not request access to personal affairs information

Documents Requested

The Freedom of Information Act 1982 provides access to documents not information.

Please describe the documents that you request access to.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 1982, I wish to gain access to the following documents:

Privacy Collection Statement

Monash City Council ("Council") collects personal information via this form to provide you with the service you are seeking and/or to fulfill its statutory responsibilities, and for related purposes which you may reasonably expect.
